

Ammonia

BE WATCHFUL AND BEWARE

THE SONG OF THE GIPSY

Music by
Chas. W. Glover

Arranged for the GUITAR by Henry Chadwick.

New York FIRTH, POND & CO. Franklin Sq.

MODERATO.

(2nd Verse) I will not cheat you maiden, My Seek not to know the future, Be 'Gipsy skill you seek, This on - ly of the future The Gip-sy-girl can speak: When happy while you may, Nor cloud with dark fore knowledge The sunshine of to day. I flip-pant worldlings flat-ter, Let then your doubts be-gin, Take mai-den for your see that you are hopeful, I read it in your eyes, And I can learn no coun- - cel The "still small voice with-in;" If weak the heart of wo-man Her more from The stars that gem the skies; Trust not the out-ward seeming Of stronghold too is there; Guard then the fortress, Conscience! Be watchful! and beall who speak you fair; What has been, Maiden, may be, Be watchful! and be-

-ware! Be watchful be watchful be watchful and be-ware! Be
-ware! Be watchful Be watchful be watchful and be-ware! Be watchful! be watchful be watchful and be-ware.

watchful. be watchful be watchful and be-ware.

2 1 3 2 1

